

POST-GRADUATE DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

GAUHATI UNIVERSITY

Semester	Course Code	Course	Type	Credit	Intake	Target Students	Objectives & Prospect	Modalities of Selection
1st Sem	HIS1054	Research Writing in Social Sciences	VAC	4	30 (IH) 30 (OD)	Humanities and Social Science	The course is designed to impart skills to students to write a research paper, research proposal and project report, etc.	First come first serve
3rd Sem	HIS3036	Gender History	Elective/Open	6	30 (IH) 30 (OD)	Open to all	The course introduces the basic concepts and sources related to gender history. It engages feminist debates on representation of women in Indian History. It traces the genesis of gender history to the Feminist Movements in the West and covers its emergence and development in India with focus on the North East. The course is designed to create gender sensitivity and encourage research in the field.	DAC will scrutinize and finalise the list

IH: In-house; OD-Open to students from other departments